

Are you looking at the big picture?

To date Signal has helped develop some of the biggest graffiti-based projects Britain has ever seen, employing leading artists from the UK and overseas.

Signal is a unique company that works with different organisations to build projects targeting specific audiences and objectives and utilising graffiti as an art form.

Projects have included:

- Working with excluded young people and repeat offenders
- Commissioned murals
- Community development & cohesion
- Exhibitions and events
- Social & environmental regeneration
- Education programmes
- Representing youth culture
- Social inclusion
- Reducing fear of crime
- Anti-vandalism initiatives
- Marketing and design
- Working with multi-discipline artforms
