

PRIVACY POLICY

July 2010

We know that privacy is important and that you don't want your personal details to be available to other people. When you supply any personal information to Signal Project Limited we have legal obligations towards you in the way we deal with that data.

Your personal details will not be used for any other purpose than to respond to your request or enquiry, or periodically send you updates and news directly related to Signal Project Limited. Retained data will not be released to any third parties.

We have procedures and security controls to ensure we only use your details for reasons directly related to Signal Project Limited. Everyone who works for us knows just how important it is to maintain confidentiality at all times.

Links to other websites

Our website may contain links to other websites of interest. However, once you have used these links to leave our site, you should note that we do not have any control over that other website. Therefore, we cannot be responsible for the protection and privacy of any information which you provide whilst visiting such sites and such sites are not governed by this privacy statement. You should exercise caution and look at the privacy statement applicable to the website in question.

Controlling your personal information

We will ensure that all personal information supplied is held securely, in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998. You may request details of personal information which we hold about you under the Data Protection Act 1998. A small fee may be payable. If you would like a copy of the information held on you please contact info@signalproject.com

We strive to keep details that are accurate and up to date. Our procedures ensure that we will correct any inaccurate or incomplete information as quickly as possible. If you believe that any information we are holding on you is incorrect or incomplete, please email us as soon as possible, at the above address.

Please be aware that the Signal Project website runs Google Analytics site user tracking.